

Point estimates only; every level is a three-seed mean and no step carries an interval or a separation claim.