

Point estimates only: every level is a three-seed mean and no step carries an interval or a separation claim.